

I support the "Do Not Call Act." Aside from the fact that we don't receive any more calls from telemarketers, I actually allow my children to answer the phone.

Not knowing who was calling, or what questions they were going to ask was always a burden. It didn't matter who they were talking or what the age was of the individual.

Please do not terminate this act.